Notes and conditions for contributors

The Centro Einaudi's policy is to acquire copyright in all contributions.

However, on the condition that full acknowledgment of the Centro Einaudi and Fondazione CRT prize is given and a notification is sent to applications-GR@centroeinaudi.it, all contributors retain the following non-transferable rights:

- The right to upload either the submitted or the final version of the paper on their personal web page, only after the paper has been published in the Quaderni del Premio "Giorgio Rota" ISBN working paper online serie;
- The right to reproduce revised or updated versions of the awarded paper in any volume of which they are editors, authors or co-authors;
- The right to publish revised or updated versions of the awarded paper either in a journal or in a volume edited by others;
- The right to make 'not for commercial use' hard copies of either the submitted or the final version of the paper.

By signing this Application form, I hereby declare that:

- I am the corresponding author of the paper I have submitted to the 8th GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award Call for Papers
- I accept the conditions and terms described in the 8th GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award Call for Papers and in the Format for 'Quaderni del Premio Giorgio Rota'. I agree that, if the paper is submitted in a different format (i.d. Latex, etc), in case of selection I shall produce a version for publication in line with the Format above mentioned
- The submitted paper fulfils all the eligibly criteria described in the 8th GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award Call for Papers
- Other co-authors of the submitted paper (if any) are informed of this procedure
- The co-authors (if any) and I fulfil all the eligibly criteria described in the 8th GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award Call for Papers
- If the paper will be selected, I will attend the GIORGIO ROTA Conference that will be held in May 2020 in Turin (Italy) in order to present the paper and claim the prize
