

Applications for ELF Studio Europe 2020 are open.

Program

During one online session and three physical sessions young and upcoming professionals will participate in education and training programs given by international recognized trainers and experts while being focused on finding answers to the major challenges of liberalism in the 21st century. The participants will work outside the confines of the usual organizational structures. Therefore ELF Studio Europe offers a platform to come up with innovative approaches to various problems. During this edition of ELF Studio Europe participants will explore the subject of political participation and activism.

Timeline

- Kick off session (online) Saturday 15th of August, 10:00 – 12:00 CEST.
