GIORGIO ROTA

BEST PAPER AWARD FOR YOUNG RESEARCHERS

9th edition

CALL FOR PAPERS 2021

The Centro Einaudi with the support of Fondazione CRT launches the 9th annual GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award, which is established to honour the memory of Giorgio Rota, a leading Italian economist born in Turin, who was in charge of economic research at the Centro Einaudi for many years.

The Centro Einaudi is an independent non-profit institute based in Turin. Its mission is to conduct independent research, providing policy recommendations in the fields of political economy, welfare policies, government and market competition.

Since 1963, the Centro Einaudi has been a beacon of liberalism and one of the most influential Italian think-tanks. Many of its members hold prominent positions in academia, government, journalism and business.

Fondazione CRT is a private non-profit organization founded in 1991. For 30 years, it has been one of the "engines" of development and growth in the north of Italy in three main areas: Art and Culture, Research & Education, Welfare and Territory. It implements projects and resources in the promotion of the arts and cultural activities, the promotion of scientific research and training for young people, support for innovation and social entrepreneurship, assistance to people in need, the preservation of the environment, and the civil protection and first response systems. Fondazione CRT also embraces the so-called active philanthropy approach, including venture philanthropy and impact investing. In 30 years of activity, Fondazione CRT has distributed resources totalling over 1.9 billion euro, which has permitted the realisation of over 40,000 interventions.

Young researchers are invited to participate to the 8th GIORGIO ROTA Best Paper Award by submitting high-quality scientific papers (a maximum of two papers per candidate) presenting original research on the following subject:

with the support of

Main economic tendencies in the contemporary world economy

The ninth edition of the prize in the memory of the illustrious economist Giorgio Rota aims at stimulating scientific reflection and debate on the main economic trends in the contemporary world economy, considering the challenging pandemic scenario.

Topics of interest thus include, but are not limited to:

- globalisation and deglobalisation processes
- the economic implications of the coronavirus pandemic
- the debt cycles in the post-crisis world economy
- secular stagnation and the limits to growth in developed countries
- emerging state regulation and regionalism in international trade
- increased global economic inequality and political instability
- the political economy of populism
- the digitalisation of the economy
- the political economy of energy transition
- geopolitics of the natural resources management
- the Belt and Road Initiative and other world-scale investments
- global food governance and alternative food networks

The authors of the three best papers will be awarded a prize of 1.500 Euros (gross) per paper and they will be invited to present their work at the Giorgio Rota Conference that will be organised in May 2021 in Turin in presence or by webinar. The workshop date and programme will be published on the Centro Einaudi website (www.centroeinaudi.it).

Participation to the conference is mandatory in order to be awarded the prize. The Centro Einaudi will also refund up to a maximum of 1.000 Euros for travel/accomodation expenses to Turin, depending on the place of origin (one author for each paper) if the Conference will be held in presence.

Only high-quality articles providing original insights with respect to the existing literature will be considered. An award committee will select the papers on the basis of the following evaluation criteria: 1) relevance to the topic; 2) literature review; 3) quality of the methods and the data; 4) originality of the data and the conclusions; 5) understandability. All decisions of the committee are final. Reviewed and formatted versions (rules for authors will be sent to the winners) of the award-winning papers will be then provided by the winners to be published in Quaderni del Premio "Giorgio Rota", an ISBN working paper online series of the Centro Einaudi.
