

Antonella Besussi teaches Political Philosophy at the University of Milan. Her research interests concern normative political theory and political philosophy with particular reference to methodological and theoretical questions.

Laura Boella is Full Professor of Moral Philosophy at the Department of Philosophy at the University of Milan. Her research deals with philosophers such as Hannah Arendt, Simone Weil, Maria Zambrano and Edith Stein. She developed the theme of intersubjective relationships and feelings of sympathy, empathy, compassion with reference to the phenomenological thought, as well as to experimental studies on the neurobiological basis of empathy.

Books: Hannah Arendt. Pensare politicamente, agire politicamente, Feltrinelli, 2005 (2nd ed.); Sentire l'altro. Conoscere e praticare l'empatia, Cortina, 2006; Neuroetica. La morale prima della morale, Cortina, 2008; Il coraggio dell'etica. Per una nuova immaginazione morale, Cortina, 2012; Empatie. L'esperienza empatica nella società del conflitto, Cortina, 2018. Italian editions: M. Scheler, Essenza e forme della simpatia, Franco Angeli, 2010; E. Bloch, Eredità del nostro tempo, Mimesis, 2015; A. Heller, Un'etica della personalità, Mimesis, 2018; H. Arendt, Il concetto d'amore in Agostino, SE, 2000; H. Arendt - K. Blumenfeld, Carteggio 1933-1963, Ombre Corte, 2015; H. Arendt, La disobbedienza civile, Chiarelettere, 2017; H. Arendt, Umanità in tempi bui, Cortina, 2019 (new ed.).

Greta Favara has a PhD in Political Studies from the Graduate School in Social and Political Sciences of the University of Milan, where she defended a thesis about the methodological foundations of political theory. She obtained her MA in Philosophy at Vita-Salute San Raffaele University in Milan where she defended a thesis which reconsidered the role of modus vivendi in theories of political liberalism. She has conducted research activities at the Centre for Philosophy of Natural and Social Sciences of the London School of Economics and Political Science in 2014 and 2015.

Martine Leibovici is Lecturer emerita at the Denis Diderot University (Paris VII), member of the Laboratoire de Changement Social et Politique. Recent books published: Autobiographies de transfuges. Karl Philipp Moritz, Richard Wright, Assia Djebar (Le Manuscrit, 2013) and with Anne-Marie Roviello, Le perversionnement totalitaire. La banalité du mal selon Hannah Arendt, Kimé, 2017.

Beatrice Magni was born in 1970, she holds a BA degree in Political Sciences from the University of Milan, an MPhil in Political Philosophy from the Ehes (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales) of Paris, and a PhD in Political Studies from the University of Paris VII Denis Diderot, Paris. She is Assistant Professor since 2009 at the University of Milan, where she teaches Political Philosophy and Bioethics. Her research interests are in political theory, theories of justice and injustice, political realism and compromise. Among her publications: Hannah Arendt et la condition politique, L'Harmattan (2018), "New wine in old bottles: The kind of political philosophy we need", Phenomenology and Mind (2017), Machiavelli. Sette saggi di teoria politica, Mimesis (2017).

Étienne Tassin, born on April 4th, 1955, was Full Professor of Political Philosophy at the University of Paris VII - Diderot. Tassin has been one of the most important scholars of Hannah Arendt and Maurice Merleau-Ponty. He died, in Paris, on January 9th, 2018. Among his most relevant publications, we can recall Le trésor perdu: Hannah Arendt, l'intelligence de l'action politique, Payot & Rivages, coll. «Critique de la politique», 1999 (rééd. Klincksieck, 2017); Un monde commun: pour une cosmo-politique des conflits, Seuil, coll. «La couleur des idées», 2003; Le maléfice de la vie à plusieurs: la politique est-elle vouée à l'échec?, Bayard, 2012.