

Glyn Morgan teaches Political Science in the Maxwell School at Syracuse University. He is Moynihan Director of the European Union Center. He is the author of The Idea of a European Superstate (Princeton 2007).

Josef Hien received his PhD from the European University Institute. He has worked as post-doctoral fellow at the Max Planck Institute for the study of societies in Cologne and at the Collegio Carlo Alberto in Moncalieri, Turin. In 2013 he was given the A.SK award for his work on government and economic reform by the Wissenschaftszentrum in Berlin. Josef works for the REScEU project, a European Research Council funded project at the University of Milan directed by Maurizio Ferrera. Here he explores Ordoliberalism and its role during the European crisis.

Gabriele Giacomini received his PhD degree in Cognitive neuroscience and Philosophy of mind from the University Vita-Salute San Raffaele in Milan and from the The Institute for Advanced Study of Pavia (IUSS). He has published papers focusing on the relationship between neuroscience, philosophy and political science and is member of the Center for Public Ethic Studies of the University San Raffaele in Milan. He has written Prima che sia domani: padri, figli, un'allenza per ripartire (together with Furio Honsell, Mimesis 2014) and Psicodemocrazia: quanto l'irrazionalità condiziona il discorso pubblico (Mimesis 2014).

