

Con il patrocinio di Ministero degli Affari Esteri

SUMMER SCHOOL

June 23-July 4, 2014

TOChina

中国 国际 政治 经济 夏季 研讨 班

POLITICS, FOREIGN POLICY AND POLITICAL ECONOMY OF CONTEMPORARY CHINA

The intellectual salon is a common format in contemporary China, but it is a rara avis among those outside China who would come to grips with that country's complex socio-political, regional and economic topography. TOChina offers a unique educational salon for engaged young scholars and professionals from various backgrounds in which they can learn about, discuss and debate the presence of China on the global stage. A salon with edge and purpose like the TOChina Summer School prepares participants for the real world of China today and tomorrow.

Prof. Geremie Barmé, Director of the Australian Centre on China in the World (ANU)

TOChina engaged me in dialogues with both leading experts and young scholars of China studies in a truly multicultural context, where I made lifelong friends who share my own vision and passion for this field of research.

Wang Gerui 王格睿, TOChina alumnus
Candidate, MA in Asian Studies, Center for Chinese Studies, University of Michigan

The TOChina Summer School, a partnership of the Department of Culture, Politics and Society, University of Torino, the Torino World Affairs Institute, and the Australian Center on China in the World (CIW) has been running with the support of Fondazione CRT since 2007 to help outstanding students, young scholars and engaged professionals reflect on the complexity of China's development and return to global prominence from a plurality of perspectives.

Based at the new "Luigi Einaudi" campus of the University of Torino, the Summer School welcomes participants in a vibrant international environment, where an informal work style allows for free, in-depth discussion on critical issues that lie at the intersection of China's long-term structural transformations and global current affairs.

In 2014 the School will once again feature its trademark China Room Conversations conference: its focus will be on China's role and strategies in the West Asia - Northern Africa region. This year's CRC is supported by the Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation and the Wilson Center. UN Special Envoy Romano Prodi will deliver the keynote address.

Confirmed TOChina faculty members for this year's Summer School are:

Naser Al Tamimi (Al Arabiya), Geremie Barmé (ANU),
Kjeld Erik Bradsgaard (Copenhagen Business School),
Kent Deng (LSE), Sandro Furlan (ENI),
Fu Chenggang 傅诚刚 (Boyuan Foundation),
Jean François Huchet (INALCO),
Liang Yabin 梁亚滨 (Central Party School of the CPC),
Niu Xinchun 牛新春 (CICIR), Yitzhak Shichor (Haifa University),
Patricia Thornton (University of Oxford), Luigi Tomba (ANU).

Applications are accepted from students and professionals from all over the world. Participants are selected through a highly competitive process, strictly based on academic merit, professional achievements and individual potential. Graduate students and young researchers from Europe and Asia make up the bulk of the class every year.

Online applications are accepted as from April 7th 2014.

Students may apply for ZEROTASSE scholarships, waving tuition costs completely. Those who do not live in the Torino area can alternatively apply for the FREETORINO scholarships, covering tuition, accommodation and, partially, meals for the duration of their stay in Torino.

www.tochina.it/summerschool

twai

FONDAZIONE CRT

