

Marco Danesi, Deputy Director of the Diocesan Caritas of Brescia, has worked in the psychiatric field in the coordination of services and in the training of operators. From 2005 to 2019, he was a contract teacher of the university course for Professional Educators "Planning, evaluation and organization of educational interventions" at the State University.